WELCOME BACK TO

This week I wanted us to think about respectful communication and inclusive etiquette in relation to the language that we use.

The following is a short podcast (13 mins) that offers some thoughtful consideration of the use of inclusive language and explains why language matters so much.

How can I use this?

Reflect on the language that you use in the classroom:

- Are there certain words or phrases that have become a habitual part of your classroom language?
- Are they inclusive?

See you next week!
